

FALL and CHRISTMAS GOODS at RIGHT PRICES

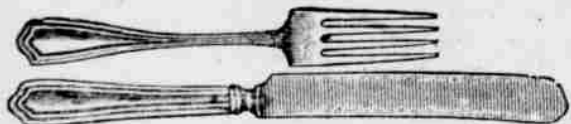

YOU are invited to inspect our Fall and Christmas line of goods now on display. Seasonableness, style, quality and price are combined in these things in such a way as to make this announcement an invitation more than ordinarily important to you. The goods listed in this space give you an idea of the completeness and money-saving powers of our fall line. Necessarily only a few things can be shown here.

COME IN AND SEE THE OTHERS

LEATHER WALLET

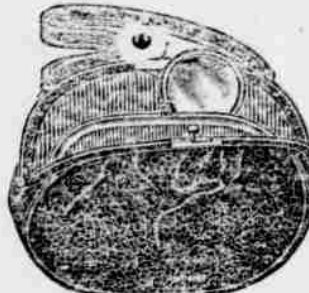

Plenty of room for carrying bills or valuable papers. A very good value at50c to $1.00

Many beautiful designs in well known makes, such as Rogers, Holmes & Edwards, and Community.

LEATHER HANDBAGS

Made of good Morocco grain sheep well finished. Specially priced at98c to $1.50

BABY SPOONS

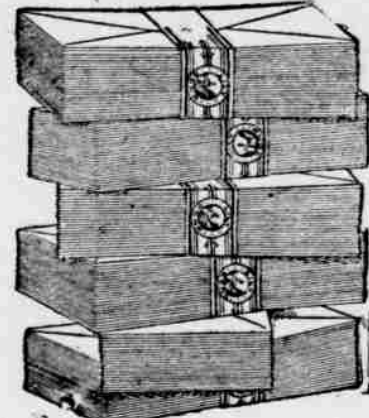

You'll be pleased with these charming little spoons. Some splendid values, each in a box at each.....49c We also have them in two and three-piece sets.

CUT GLASS SPOON TRAYS

Sparkling cut glass, beautifully designed, an article any woman will be proud of.

ENVELOPES

This is the best place in town to buy envelopes and stationery. We always have a big line in stock at prices to please you.

CUT GLASS SALTS AND PEPPERS

in a variety of styles as low as $1.00 each pair, also silver plated as low as38c a pair

MANICURE SETS

Indispensable for the dressing table. Some excellent values.

WRIST WATCHES

make splendid gifts and are very popular. We have them in desirable styles with good movements. Priced as low as$6.00

Lang's Jewelry Store

BATCHELDER BLOCK,

BARTON, VERMONT

SPORTSMEN!

Although the woods are full of taxidermists by the name of "Phillips," remember that we are still doing business at the same old stand, and are the original C. S. Phillips Company.

Founded by C. S. Phillips 40 years ago, this business has become widely known all over New England and thousands of sportsmen have sent their trophies here to be mounted, and have been well pleased. So make no mistake, but address your specimens to

C. S. Phillips Company

Glover, Vermont

New England's Leading Taxidermists

Are You Doing Your Share?

THE GREENSBOROS

GREENSBORO

Henry Miller has been among those ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie were in Manchester last week to attend the funeral of a relative.

Herbert H. Bailey had a slight shock one day last week but is reported as slowly improving.

Annabelle Hartson is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barrington and attending the Junior high school.

Mrs. Addie Colton, Danvers, Mass., was at N. L. Drown's last week, being called there by the death of Harold Drown.

A card has been received that W. W. Miller, who is in the tank service of the army, has arrived safely in France.

The subject for the C. E. meeting Sunday evening will be "Reforms that Need Our Aid." Leader, Mrs. E. C. Hayes.

Rev. Crosbie of Brooklyn, N. Y., occupied the pulpit of the U. P. church Sunday as a candidate for the vacant pastorate.

Mrs. Geo. E. Colby and son, George, went to Lancaster, N. H., last week for several days' visit with Mrs. Colby's sister, Mrs. Balch.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Atwood, after spending the summer at Camp Falmawj, Lakewood, left last week for their home in Randolph.

Mrs. Walter King, who has been ill for some time with influenza, underwent an operation at the Hardwick hospital one day last week.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Congregational church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the parsonage Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone and family, who have been occupying their camp at Winnemere the last summer, went to their home in Hardwick last week.

Rev. Geo. W. Morrow, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, who have been at Camp Woodbine, Lakewood, for the summer, have gone to their home in Detroit.

Word has been received that Chas. Mooney of Toronto, Can., has been killed in France. His grandfather was a Greensboro boy and some of the relatives of the family still live here.

Forty books, which have been donated for the soldiers' libraries were shipped by the Greensboro library to Montpelier last week. This makes 190 volumes sent from this library in three months.

All those who have labels for Christmas boxes from soldier boys may obtain the boxes at the post office. Remember the boxes must be inspected by the postmaster and sent before Nov. 20th.

Willie Woods, who has been ill for some time with influenza and pneumonia at the home of A. E. Jackson, underwent a slight operation Thursday on one of his lungs. He may be taken to a hospital for further attention.

Mrs. W. E. Hocking and three children, who have been occupying a cottage at the north end of the lake, left last week for their home in Cambridge, Mass. Prof. Hocking has been speaking in the military camps for several weeks.

The Caspian Lake Grange will hold its regular meeting Thursday in the Grange hall and the program will consist of a competitive entertainment between the men and women, each to furnish a thirty-minute program.

The Greensboro cornet band has disbanded and the money amounting to $45.90, has been turned over to the Red Cross. The band could not be maintained because of the many who have been drafted or moved from town in the past year.

There was not a large vote cast in the election Tuesday of last week, Clement receiving 73 votes and Mayo 20. The town nominee for state representative failed of election, Dr. P. C. Kinney being elected by a vote of 64 to 48 for the nominee.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Soule and son, Richard, of Burlington visited one day last week at the home of Mrs. Mary Ingalls. Mrs. Florence Soule, who accompanied them, is making an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Ingalls.

Louis Kesselman was in Newport Friday, walking to and from Barton on the trip. Ray Pestle, principal of the junior high school, took the walk with him. Mr. Kesselman has been accepted in the military draft for service. Carlos Spier and Bruce Young were in Newport one day last week in connection with the draft to which they are both subject.

Remember the first number of the Greensboro entertainment course will be given at the town hall Nov. 27th and will be a lecture by Peter McQueen, the noted writer and war correspondent, who has been in France and can tell of the war at first hand. Season tickets at $1.00 and war tax, for sale at Barrington's mill and Willey's store. It will pay you to get your reserved seat at once.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Harold Drown, which was held at the United Presbyterian church Nov. 6th, and conducted by Rev. F. A. Collins, a former pastor of the church, now of South Byegate. The flowers were many and beautiful showing the high esteem in which the young man was held by his many friends. He was the oldest of five children and leaves beside his father and mother, two sisters and two brothers, many other relatives to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family in their loss. Burial was in the village cemetery.

The following committee has been appointed by George E. Colby, chairman for the United War Work campaign this week: G. Y. Simpson, J. H. Barrington, Mrs. C. H. Miller, A. E. Jackson, H. C. Calderwood, H. H. Haines, J. Irwin Wilson, N. H. Kaiser, Elwin Esden, Mrs. Rose Demars, George E. Davis and H. W. Gillis. Our quota is $1218, about $60 to care for each soldier from Greensboro. That is not much to give our boys a home and amusement. Will you do your share? Prin. Ray Pestle has been appointed leader of the Victory Boys, and Miss Mildred Fairbanks, of the Victory Girls, who are between 12 and 20 years of age and who will pledge themselves to earn and give $5 to this work.

GREENSBORO-North Neighborhood
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Allen are visiting relatives in Plymouth, N. H.

Mrs. Jennie Lumsden has finished her work at Hardwick and is at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson and daughter are at D. G. Speir's for the week.

Miss Marjorie Hall is home from Hardwick and is working for Mrs. Roy Young.

D. G. Speir, John Gebbie, Perley Atherton and Charlie Richardson are hunting deer in Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ritchie were recently called to Manchester, N. H., to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. White of Hardwick, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Aldrich were recent visitors at Carl Philbrooks'.

Carlos Spier and Bruce Young were called to Newport Wednesday for an examination. Albert Young and David Spier accompanied them, making the trip by auto.

Thomas H. Bradley, Proprietor, Occidental Hotel, Goshen, N. Y.

Says: The RAT-SNAP which I purchased from The Goshen Hardware Company gave perfect satisfaction. It killed off all the rats and mice on my property and I can truthfully state that I couldn't detect the slightest odor. I cheerfully recommend it to all property holders, for it surely does all they claim for it, and more, too.
Sold by F. D. Pierce, Barton. Austin's Pharmacy, Orleans.

Commissioners' Notice Estate of John Bona

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the District of Orleans, Commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust the claims and demands of all persons against the estate of John Bona late of Barton in said District, deceased, and all claims exhibited in offset thereto, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purpose aforesaid at the store of the late John Bona in the town of Barton in said District on the 16th day of November and 15th day of March next from one o'clock p. m., until four o'clock p. m. on each of said days and that six months from the 16th day of October A. D. 1918 is the time limited by said Court for said creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.
Dated at Barton this 29th day of October A. D. 1918
C. E. HAMBLETT
JOHN LEVAGGI
Commissioners

THE THREE CRAFTSBURYS

EAST CRAFTSBURY

Thomas Morse has been suffering from an attack of influenza.

The harvest dinner was held in the U. P. church Thursday, Nov. 7.

Mrs. Belle Rowell has been spending the past week at Ora Anderson's.

Paul Heider has gone to Chicago to attend a school for military training.

Edward Comer was in Newport last week and passed the military examination.

Miss Lila Colburne is spending a few days with her father, Bert Colburne.

John Colburne has finished work for Ora Anderson and has gone to Ed Dutton's.

Elmer Barclay has sold his cattle and they are moving to their new home in Craftsbury.

Mrs. James Anderson has been ill the past few days, but is a little better at this writing.

Miss Mary Wylie of Brightlook hospital, St. Johnsbury, was a recent visitor at her old home.

Mrs. Alice Simpson has closed her home for the winter and is with her daughter, Mary, in Morrisville.

Alex Shields sold some cattle to Chester Anderson of Montpelier and took them to Hardwick one day last week.

The first number of the Craftsbury lecture course will be held at East Craftsbury, Tuesday, Nov. 19, S. Platt Jones, speaker.

Miss Mary Bailey was called home Thursday by the serious illness of her father. He is reported to be a little more comfortable at this writing.

Misses Grace and Eva McDonald, who were called home by the serious illness of their brother, are both ill with influenza. Their brother is recovering.

Quite a good number from this place went to the Common Thursday night to celebrate Germany's surrender and a general good time was enjoyed by all, but Friday's news brought disappointment as their rejoicing was all in vain. They had better be sure of the Kaiser before they burn him.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY

Jess Farr has finished work for M. B. Johnson.

Mrs. Jess Farr, who has been quite ill, is some better.

Miss Sarah Miller returned to Philadelphia last week.

Mrs. Allen Pike is visiting her parents in Wolcott for a week.

Miss Mildred Fairbanks of Greensboro is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Root.

Miss Bailey was called home Wednesday night by the serious illness of her father.

ALL THE ALBANYS

ALBANY

The schools in town opened Wednesday.

Mrs. Mina Eldridge is visiting in Orleans.

Mrs. Ida Jenne of Newport is visiting at R. M. Cowles'.

Several hunters from this place are in Eden watching for deer.

The ladies will serve a harvest dinner at the church vestry Thursday at noon.

Mrs. Addie Chamberlin and Mrs. Lizzie Cameron of Orleans visited friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Cass of Lowell, Mass., brought the remains of her father, Wm. Chamberlin, here for burial Sunday.

Those desiring the Christmas boxes for the soldiers overseas can get them by presenting their coupons at D. H. Hackett's store.

Ellery Davis of this town and Mary Wheeler of Craftsbury were married at Barton Nov. 4th and are spending their honeymoon in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Davis have returned from a trip to Providence, R. I., which they made by auto with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baird, of Barton.

The remains of Wilbur Chamberlin an old citizen of this town, were brought here from Massachusetts Sunday and buried in the cemetery on Chamberlin Hill, where he formerly lived. Rev. W. E. Craig officiated at the burial service.

SOUTH ALBANY

Miss Margaret Wylie is with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Anderson.

The village school began Wednesday after an enforced vacation.

Mrs. C. H. Porter has returned from her work at Will Anderson's.

Alvah Miller and Charles Vance were called to Newport Wednesday for military examination.

John Dutton, Will Farr and Bliss Farrar are among those off on a week's deer hunt.

Mrs. Witt was here from Greensboro a few days last week and occupied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cole were in East Hardwick Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Root were in Newport last week to attend Farmers' meeting.

The vote for representative was very close Tuesday when Allen Pike got 100 votes and Martin Sawyer 101.

Mrs. Bert Colburn was thrown from the wagon while coming from Barton Saturday, and broke her arm.

John Camney has hired to M. B. Johnson to gather cream and will move his family into Bert Colburn's house.

The sad news has just reached Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gilbert, of the death of their son, Ray, from the effects of pneumonia, in France, Oct. 20.

One of the pleasant events of the past week was the marriage of Miss Mary Wheeler to Ellery Davis. They took the air line at Barton Monday night to enjoy their honeymoon in New Hampshire.

CRAFTSBURY

Emily Day is ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Nellie Urie remains quite ill.

Rev. C. D. Pierce left Wednesday for a deer hunting trip.

Mrs. George Lovejoy of Hardwick was a guest of Mrs. N. H. Kinney last week.

Mrs. Walter Merrill is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Perkins, of Bridgewater.

Town meeting passed off very quietly, electing M. S. Sawyer, town representative.

Clarence Williams of Boston will speak Sunday morning and evening in the M. E. church.

The Craftsbury Dramatic club are preparing a play that will be given in the near future.

Mrs. Lola Allen and daughter, Bernice, returned Saturday to Hardwick, where Bernice will resume teaching.

Mr. Smith of the Anti-Saloon League gave a very able and interesting address in the M. E. church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mackender accompanied by Mrs. Blanche McKinley were business visitors in Hardwick on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Sawyer will reside at the home of Mrs. Sawyer's sister during the winter, having taken up their abode there Friday.

The false war news of Thursday afternoon called out all the demonstrations one could ask for. Men, women and children nearly went wild with joy.

Mrs. Abbie Whipple, who suffered a severe attack of acute indigestion last week, is much better now.

A dance was held in Andersonville Friday evening to celebrate the end of the war, just a little ahead of time.

Mrs. Fred Fletcher and Miss Barbara of Albany were the guests of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Williams, one day last week.

A Rat's One Meal.

A rat will pass up all other food for RAT-SNAP. It's his first meal and his last. And then, it chemically mummifies the carcass: Doesn't have to be mixed with other food. Won't blow away, dry up or decay. Surest, quickest, cleanest, safest, to kill rats and mice. Four sizes, 25c., 50c., $1.00 and $3.00 adv.
Sold by Fred D. Pierce, Barton. Austin's Pharmacy, Orleans.

WESTMORE

Forest and Earl Bowen were in Derby over Sunday.

Willie Wills is home from Camp Devens for a few days.

Mrs. Fred Tatro is visiting her parents in Brownington.

Mrs. Harriet Fish has gone back to Franklin, after spending a few days at home. She has an important school position.

Those who have boys overseas to whom they wish to send Christmas boxes please call at Mrs. George Myers' for the box.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2815 Sheffield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills for pain in sides and back; rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache and slugish bowels.—Sold Everywhere.

ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14 COMES OUR OPENING SALE OF WOMEN'S, MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S COATS, SUITS, SKIRTS AND FURS

The line comprises the latest models and most approved effects for Fall and Winter. Suits, Coats, Furs, Fur Coats, Children's Coats and Skirts will be Sold at Special Prices.

By special arrangement these garments have been secured on consignment from E. E. Clarkson & Co., of Burlington.

REMEMBER THIS IS OUR SALE

All purchases bear our guarantee. You deal with none but us. Don't fail to attend this Great Opening Sale.

This Sale is for ONE DAY ONLY, Thursday, November 14
C. A. BARROWS & SON, Barton, Vt.